Tue. July 4th

Dearest Billy,
Here I am back at the table writing you we went to the country today they thrashed wheat today I cooked dinner Grandma turned it all over to me. Mary Anna was there but she went home after we got there as they had to cook supper for the thrashers Mary Anna said tell you Helo for her she said she would like to hear from you. Daddy was water boy all day, and the crew milk got mad at Daddy when he went to feed him his dinner, when he pulled his bridle off he reared up + jumped over him + then kicked at him but happened not to hurt him just scared him and scared Grandpa too so Grandpa wouldnt give him any corn for his dinner. they made 350 bu. of wheat + they sure did have a good day. Mildred went with us + hope this finds you alright, + I am still looking for a letter. I'll write tomorrow.
Love from
Mamma.
